FATHER PAUL JUSSSEN

Hello, my name is Fr. Paul Jussen, M.S. I am a La Salette Missionary and I am newly ordained as of June 17, 2017. I have been assigned to Our Lady of Prompt Succor Parish and I am excited to serve in Louisiana for my first assignment! It isn't my first time at Prompt Succor. I visited during my first year of formation and a few times for vocation fundraisers. Each time I hoped that one day God would send me there.

I was born and raised in San Jose, CA which is known as the capital of Silicon Valley. My parents immigrated from the Netherlands the day after their marriage and settled there. Since the passing of my parents the only family I have currently in the U.S. are my two older brothers and one cousin. My family owned a deli/catering business for 20 years which I helped to manage. I have a lot of experience with food and customer service. I was also very involved in my Parish, Holy Family, and worked in high school youth ministry for about 12 years. I've led youth group meetings, retreats, confirmation classes and Scripture studies. It was a time of growth in which I found myself discerning God's call to priesthood. I found that sharing my faith and ministering to others gave me such great joy that I often looked forward to being at my Parish more than at work.

I entered formation as a La Salette in 2010 and left everything behind. Both of my parents passed away during my initial formation. I had to rely on God even more. My parents were very supportive of my vocation and I know they are praying hard for me right now, but I still miss them.

I am an avid soccer fan and follow several teams closely. My hobbies include sports, photography and bowling. Maybe we can get a Parish bowling team going!

I pray that my assignment as a newly ordained Priest at Our Lady of Prompt Succor will be a good experience. I look forward to sharing God's love with you all and I ask for your prayers as well.
